

Betty Ruby

January 26, 1918 - October 6, 2010

Betty L. Ruby, 92, Hot Springs Village, AR died peacefully on October 06, 2010 in a local hospital. Betty was born on January 26, 1918 in Centerville, IN to the late Charles Earl and Catherine Abel.

Betty was raised in Centerville and graduated from Centerville High School and continued her education in Fort Wayne, IN to become a beautician and set-up shop in Hagerstown, IN. Betty married Malcolm Ruby on August 6, 1938 and they just celebrated their 72nd wedding anniversary. They moved to Crown Point, Indiana in 1943 where Malcolm was a teacher and a coach. Betty was active in the First Methodist Church, school activities, and was President of Psi Iota Psi Sorority, a social and service group. In 1977, they retired to Hot Springs Village, Arkansas where they enjoyed playing golf, bridge and social activities with family and friends. They continued to be active in the church and were part of the "firehouse gang" that helped form the Village United Methodist Church. Betty was a shepherd in one of the church circles. She was a loving, caring, and giving wife, mother, and friend. When new people moved into the neighborhood, she always met them with her loaf of Friendship Bread. Betty loved butterflies for their beauty and sense of freedom.

Betty leave to cherish her memories; husband, Malcolm Ruby; daughters, Nancy Ruby of Joliet, IL, Deborah Eisenhutt of Alma, WI, Kathy Lamb of Little Rock, AR, grandsons, Leo and James Eisenhutt; great-grandchildren, Ben, Sam, Katelyn, Zach Eisenhutt and many friends and relatives.

A memorial service will be held at a later date. Memorials in the name of Betty Ruby may be sent to: BEBRF, Inc., P.O. Box 12468 Beaumont, Texas 77726-2468 for Benign Essential Blepharospasm Research Foundation, Inc. or the American Cancer Society.
