“ Kenneth and all the family,
You're in my prayers. May you "cast all your care upon Him, for He cares for you." May God Bless you in time of sorrow.

“ I have many memories of "Charlie" from growing up at Brush Creek. The best is going to their house on Halloween, they always had full size candy bars!! For a "husky" girl this made us friends. And he would always "you only got one.....get another!"....this made us friends for life!!!! Also when he would stop at the store, he always called my mama "Mrs. Bobby"...that was cool to me.
