

James Crider

May 8, 1937 - August 27, 2008

James Crider, age 71, of Hot Springs Village passed away Wednesday, August 27, 2008 at a local hospital. He was born May 8, 1937, in Scranton, Pennsylvania to James E. Crider and Edith Jones Crider. He was an Elementary School Teacher.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

Graveside service will be 3:00 P.M. Saturday, August 30, 2008 at CedarVale Cemetery with Reverend Gene Washburn officiating.

ARRANGEMENTS ARE UNDER THE DIRECTION OF CEDARVALE
FUNERAL HOME OF HOT SPRINGS VILLAGE, ARKANSAS (501)922-6100.
YOU MAY SIGN THE GUESTBOOK AT WWW.ATKINSONFUNERALHOME.NET

Tribute Wall

JA

“ Fading light dims the sight, and a star gems the sky. Gleaming bright from afar, drawing nigh, falls the night. Dear one rest!

Gone but never forgotten by loving sisters: Shirley Schultz (Chuck Sumner), Memphis, Tn.; Joan Antal (widow of Joseph), Newport News, Va.; Edith Colwell (Norman), Exeter, Pa.; and devoted cousin Sally Jones, Old Forge, Pa.

Joan Antal - March 22, 2013 at 08:39 AM

SJ

“ I'm Jim's cousin from PA. We spoke often and he always made me laugh. We had interesting conversations from politics to weather. Wish he could be here to enjoy this political season. Jim loved life and thankfully had 18 years of retirement.

Rest in peace, cousin Jimmy!! I miss your calls!
Sally

Sally Jones - March 22, 2013 at 08:39 AM

EC

“ I like to think that Jim left many happy memories with his many friends. I hope they will remember the many fun times with him. I know he will be very much missed by his family sister, Edith

Edith Colwell - March 22, 2013 at 08:39 AM

CF

“ Jim was in a bridge class I taught. Enjoyed his witty comments. I will miss him.

Connie Fitch - March 22, 2013 at 08:39 AM