“ Dear Rogers Family,
Joyce was like a second mom for me. Her shining eyes always seemed to take such delight in the chaos we kids created. (And we did create some chaos, yes!)

Here's sending you all prayers of grief and joy, grief for your loss and joy for the wonderful gift Joyce was to all.

Love,
Dan

“ I was saddened to learn of Joyce's passing. She was a very nice lady and I had many good conversations with her when we were both members of St. Thomas in Sioux City. She was very active there and did many good things for the church and her fellow church members. My prayers are with Bob and the family at this very difficult time. Godspeed Joyce....a job well done.

“ Dear Family of Joyce~

Please know that all of us who knew your dear mother/wife, had the greatest respect and affection for her. When I think of her I remember the beautiful, deep warmth in her eyes. She was so kind, so welcoming and approachable and truly an exceptionally beautiful lady. So sorry for your loss of dear Joyce...Keeping you all in my thoughts and prayers...
