“As childhood sweethearts, Michael and I were inseparable. He has always had a special place in my heart. I do know, he had a wonderful heart and loving soul. I hope his family's pain, will soon be replaced with the "happy memories" of his life. So glad I got to say goodbye. God Bless.

“ As death is never easy, loved-ones can celebrate the life of one that enters into the new "Home". Having never met Mike, I did know Jerry and just know that my prayers are with you during this grieving process.
