“ *Dear Leona,
So sorry about Bob's death and having to miss the funeral mass.
Was glad I could make the visitation and meet your four lovely children. Will look forward to seeing you dance in the fall. Liz Miller*

“ We were out of the village when we heard of Bob's death. It was very much of a shock. Bob and I spent time together every time we met, which was most often at the Woodworkers and Woodturners meetings.

He will certainly be missed.
